Geoloc Star Pillars

We're moving in positive directions with new age technology

Sustainability

Analyze the environmental impact of your fleet and reduce it with Geoloc Star. Plan your electrification journey efficiently with EV Suitability Assessments and coach drivers for fuel efficiency. Monitor fuel consumption and promote eco-friendly driving behaviors for a sustainable fleet.

Optimization

Vehicle data reports provided by Geoloc Star offer fleet managers comprehensive insights into various aspects of fleet operations. These reports delve into crucial metrics such as fuel consumption, vehicle maintenance, and other relevant parameters. By leveraging this data, fleet managers can gain a deep understanding of how their fleet is performing on a day-to-day basis.

Productivity

Maximize fleet productivity with Geoloc Star's solutions. Improve driver behavior, track assets, optimize routing, and gain valuable insights through custom reporting tools. Drive your business forward with Geoloc Star's comprehensive fleet management platform.

Safety

Prioritize fleet safety with Geoloc Star's solutions. Monitor key metrics, decrease collision rates, and understand driver habits with safety dashboard reports and custom alerts. Provide in-vehicle coaching and implement dash cams for seamless collision analysis and driver training.

Expandability

Break barriers and expand your business with Geoloc Star's open fleet management platform. Extend functionality through software integration with Geoloc Star's Software Development Kit (SDK), enabling process simplification or automation. Seamlessly integrate third-party hardware solutions from the Geoloc Star Marketplace to meet your business objectives.

Our Strength

We believe that our greatest asset is our talented and dedicated team. Get to know the individuals who drive our success and bring their unique skills and perspectives to everything we do.

We're not just a team; we're a family. We believe in collaboration, innovation, and continuous learning. Our diverse backgrounds and perspectives enrich our work and drive us towards excellence every day. Together, we're committed to delivering exceptional results for our clients and making a positive impact in our community.
